MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Agency Furnishing Publication to Securities and Exchange Commission

1. Mr. Neal McCoy (755-4370) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, called today to explain that one of SEC's employees, Mr. Richard Jacobs, had recently requested a copy of the book Where's What from this Agency. He told me that it was delivered by a CIA messenger in January or February of this year. He asked me if I could verify the circumstances of this. The Commission is considering disciplinary action against Mr. Jacobs.

[REDACTED] explained that Security had undertaken the requested delivery after verifying that Mr. Jacobs was appropriately cleared.

3. I called Mr. McCoy to relay the information contained in the Slip. He requested that I forward to him a copy of the Slip which I agreed to do. He also mentioned that to his knowledge, Mr. Jacobs has no security clearance. Mr. McCoy will attempt to retrieve the book and, if successful, he will forward it to me. I passed this information to [REDACTED]
